ADR – Arbitration & Mediation

Managing and resolving disputes outside of, or as a supplement to, traditional Court litigation is an important part of our practice – both domestically and internationally. While this practice builds upon our traditional litigation practice, it also requires special advocacy, case management and strategic skills. We have successfully handled dispute’s lifecycle, through the entire arbitration before the Arbitral Tribunal, to pre-arbitration – related litigation such as appointment, interim measure of protection as well as post arbitration-challenges, appeals and enforcement actions arising out of an Award.

We also offer our expertise in drafting a pragmatic Arbitration clause keeping in mind the latest developments of the law and practice. We provide support in both court-referred mediations as well as private mediations. Our Partner is a trained mediator and also empanelled to serve as a mediator at the Main Mediation Centre, Bombay High Court.

We recognize that effective advocacy comes in many forms, and that clients are best served when they can select the most appropriate means of resolving their dispute from an array of available options.

Family Law

Our Firm's Family Law Practice is rooted in a deep understanding that family disputes are not merely legal conflicts, but emotionally charged situations requiring sensitivity, strategic judgment, and confidentiality.

We advise and represent clients across the full spectrum of matrimonial and family law disputes, including divorce (contested and mutual consent), judicial separation, annulment of marriage, maintenance and alimony, child custody and visitation rights, domestic violence proceedings and disputes relating to stridhan and matrimonial property.

The Firm also handles matters involving succession, guardianship, adoption, and inter-family disputes arising out of marital relationships. Our team is experienced in representing clients before Family Courts, District Courts, High Courts, and the Supreme Court of India and regularly appear in proceedings under the various personal laws. We also advise on cross-border matrimonial disputes and jurisdictional issues.

Recognizing that litigation is not always the optimal solution, the Firm places strong emphasis on amicable resolution through negotiation, mediation, and settlement, wherever feasible. Our approach is pragmatic and outcome-oriented, focused on protecting our clients' legal rights while minimizing emotional and reputational fallout.

Our Matrimonial Practice is distinguished by:

- 🏠 Maintaining confidentiality and discretion
- 🏠 Strategic yet empathetic handling of sensitive disputes
- 🏠 Balanced advice combining legal rigour with practical solutions
- 🏠 Seamless coordination with allied practices such as dispute resolution, criminal law, and succession planning

Sports Law

Our Sports Law practice advises and represents stakeholders across the international sports sector, with a focus on arbitration, regulatory disputes, and governance. We act for athletes, licensed agents, coaches, academies, clubs, and sporting institutions across multiple sports.

We regularly represent clients before international federations and arbitral bodies, including the FIFA Football Tribunal, the Dispute Resolution Chamber, and the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS), in contractual, employment, disciplinary, and regulatory disputes. Our work includes jurisdictional strategy, conduct of proceedings, and enforcement of awards.

We advise and represent licensed sports agents in commission and contractual disputes, and professional athletes in regulatory matters involving transfers, registrations, discipline, and eligibility. We also support academies and coaches on governance, compliance, and contractual issues.

We negotiate and draft sports-related agreements with an emphasis on regulatory compliance, enforceability, and effective dispute resolution.

Our practice is grounded in a practical understanding of international sports governance and arbitration.

Labour & Employment

We advise on the employment related aspects of business and commercial transactions such as mergers, acquisitions, and also support other practice groups at the Firm in their transactions and assist our clients by drafting all ancillary documents in relation thereto.

Our Firm's employment practice team provides regulatory advice to clients covering the entire variety of employment issues from hiring to termination, and encompassing all relevant aspects such as:

- 🏠 Employee benefits
- 🏠 Whistle blower laws
- 🏠 Non-compete, privacy and confidentiality arrangements
